

STEPHEN SANDS

BIOGRAPHY

Stephen Sands is a Grammy-nominated conductor, singer, and arts leader whose career spans the highest levels of choral performance and vocal artistry. With a passion for both historic and contemporary repertoire, Stephen has earned a reputation for his expressive musicianship, innovative programming, and ability to build deep connections between performers and audiences.

Stephen serves as the Conductor of Downtown Voices at Trinity Church, New York City, where he leads performances ranging from iconic masterworks to world premieres. Under his leadership, Downtown Voices has become known for its bold, thought-provoking programming and vibrant sound. A New Jersey Excellent in the Arts recipient, Stephen is also Artistic Director of Music in the Somerset Hills, where he oversees community-based concerts, the Somerset Hills Chorus and educational programs. As managing director of Ensemble Veritas, the professional choir in residence at Harvard University, Stephen coordinates performances with the Harvard Choruses and masterclasses with aspiring choral composers from the Harvard Choruses New Music Initiative program. As a founding member and executive director of The Antioch Chamber Ensemble, Stephen fundraises and coordinates tours for the world-renowned chamber choir.

As a professional tenor, Stephen has performed with many of the country's leading ensembles, including the Grammy-nominated Trinity Choir, Pomerium, TENET Vocal Artists, Carmel Bach Festival, The Antioch Chamber Ensemble and Bach Vespers at Holy Trinity. His versatile career has taken him to prestigious venues and festivals across the United States and abroad.

Stephen's work reflects a lifelong commitment to music's power to unite, inspire, and uplift. Whether on the podium or singing, he brings a spirit of collaboration, curiosity, and artistic excellence to every project, inviting audiences to experience the beauty and emotional depth of music in fresh and meaningful ways.
